MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE HONORABLE JUDGEMEMORANDUM AND ORDER DATED NOVEMBER 12, 2003, GRANTING SUMMARY JUDGMENTIN FAVOR OF DEFENDANT BAYLARK'S AND DENIED PLAINTIFF'S APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

AND NOW COMES, Plaintiff's, Tyrone P. James, moves this Honorable Court for reconsideration pursuant to Rule 59(e) of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure and local Rule 7.10, District Court, of its Order dated November 12, 2003, Granting Motion of Summary Judgment in favor of Correctional Baylark, and for the foregoing reasons, vacate the Judgment of this Court, by issuing an Order, reversing Summary Judgment in said Order, and appoint Plaintiff's counsel; in the alternative order this civil case for trial. Plaintiff's hereby represents:

I. Background, the Factual background to this case, is detailed in the

The Magistrate's Report and Recommendation and in the Memorandum and Order, dated November 12, 2003. Plaintiff's, brought his Complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against the York County Police Department and several members of the Department, the State Attorney General Office, and Correctional Officers Baylark. The York County Prison filed a Motion For Summary Judgment, arguing that Plaintiff's claims against them should be dismissed for failure to exhaust his administrative remedies.

II. Standard for Review

The Standard for review, when deciding Summary Judgment, is governed by "the pleading, deposition, answers to interrogatories, and admission on file, together with the affidavit, if any, showing that there is no genuine issue as to any material facts and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Fed. R.Civ.P.56. A factual dispute is material if material if it might affect the outcome of the suit under the applicable law. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). A factual dispute is genuine only if there is a sufficient evidentiary basis which would allow a reasonable fact-finder to return a verdict for the non-moving party. id. at 249. The nonmoving party receives the benefit of all reasonable inferences. Sempier v. Johnson and Higgins, 45 F.3d 724, 727 (3d Cir. 1995). It has long been recognized that the underlying purpose of summary judgment is to avoid a pointless trial in cases where it is unnecessary and would only cause delay and expense. Goodman v. Mead Johnson & Co., 534 F.2d 566, 573 (3d Cir. 1976), cert, denied, 429 U.S. 1038, 97 S.Ct. 732, 50 L.Ed.2d 748 (1977). Summary judgment is appropriate only when it is demonstrated that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitle to judgment as a matter of law. Celotex Corp. v Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322-32, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 91 L.Ed.2d 265 (1986).

III. Whether the Honorable Judge erred in granting Summary Judgment in favor of Correctional Officer Baylark's

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA") provide, in relevant part, No action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law by prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted." 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a). Plaintiff's avers that the constitutional misconduct by Defendants Morgan and C/O Baylark violated his Constitutional rights, under the United States Constitution, under the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments, to due process of the law, when he deliberately and intentional denied access to counsel, interfering with attorney-clients privilege, by refusing to allow plaintiff access to counsel over a seventy-two hours, time period. Plaintiff's also avers that such administrative remedies was unavailable to him through the prison. No Prison Handbook, was available to him and he was not informed of any grievances procedures at the York County Prison, by any Administrative Counselor. Plaintiff's also request that the Court issued a stay to allow him to pursue the grievance procedure, at Y.C.P. The Magistrate Judge, Mannion, based his report and recommendation, on the affidavits of the Deputy Warden Roger Thomas, Donald L. Reihart, Esq., who is counsel of record, and Counselor Andrew Krepps,. The Affidavit of Andrew Krepps, Counselor, is questionable, as to the truthfulness and falsity, based on his loyalty^{to} the Y.C.P., and the security when considering his Job, at the York County Prison. Plaintiff's aver, that he was never informed, or did he signed any agreement that show, Counsel Krepps gave him an Handbook explaining any grievances proceeding to him. Plaintiff avered that the Grievance Systems, became, aware to him by an inmate law clerk, at the Prison. Plaintiff attempts to exhaust the administrative remedies, have proven futile. The "grievance procedure" described in the York County Prison Handbook could or didn't constitute an "available administrative remedy" for purposes of the exhaustion requirement contained in the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1997e (2000)("PLRA"), the Handbook were not sufficiently clear, expeditious, or respected by prison officials, the legal conformity of the grievance procedures, was misconstrued by prison officials, [See Counsel, Donald L. Reihart, Deputy Warden Roger Thomas, and Counselor Andrew Krepps Affidavits, Doc NO. 60]. The remedy utilization is frustrated by the County grievance systems, and does not conformed to the appropriate remedy where a inmate constitutional violation, had occurred between and inmate's an a correctional offices, prior record shows of the various constitutional deprivations that have occurred at the York County Prison; if it appears that the prisoner's rights have become an "empty shell" or that the County process is a "procedural morass" offering no hope of relief, then federal courts should excuse the prisoner from exhausting such remedies and may consider the prisoner's constitutional claims. See IN RE BAYSIDE PRISON LITIGATION, 190 F.Supp.2d 755 (D.N.J. 2002); Hankins v. Fulcomer, 941 F.2d 246, 249-250 (3d Cir. 1991); Mayberry v. Petsock, 821 F.2d 179 (3d Cir.), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 946, 103 S.Ct. 336, 98 L.Ed.2d 362 (1987). On March 20, 2003 Plaintiff's submitted a (801) Grievance Form, to the Complaint Supervisor, at the York County Prison, the result, was, that Plaintiff's complaint was null, or void, because of the statutory limitation, on filing a complaints, contrary to the complaint procedure in 2001-2002, which doesn't provided a time limitation on inmates filing complaints. Plaintiff's appeal and exhausted this appeal, their was no investigations in the January 10, 2001, incident (See Exhibit A, Complaint filed, all levels of appeal and responses, and the revised 2003 Inmate Handbook, contrary to 2001-2002, when this plaintiff's was a inmate at that Prison). Plaintiff's attempts to exhausted the York County Prison Procedure was futile, and unavailable, has no investigation were ever conducted by prison officals, claiming the statue of limitation of incident, when the Handbook doesn't states a time frame on filing a complaint. See, Brown v. Croak 312 F. 3d 109 (3d Cir. 2002); Bracey v. Herringa 466 F.2d 702 (7th Cir. 1972); White v Fauver 19 F.Supp.2d at 317; Ray v. Kerte, 235 F.3d 237, 295 (3d. Cir. 2002); McCarty v Madigan, 503 U.S.---, 112 S.Ct.1081,1089 (1992). Plaintiff's have been engaging in the empty formality the prison administrative process, for a form of relief which that administration would not provide. White v. Fauver 19 F. Supp.2d 305, 317 (D.N.J. 1998).

The PLRA does not required exhaustion of all remedies, rather it requires exhaustion of such administrative remedies "as are available 42 U.S.C. § 1997 (e)(a). Camp v. Brennan, 219 F.3d 279, 281 (3rd Cir. 2000). Plaintiff's made an honest attempt to pursue the grievance procedure at Y.C.P., the unnecessary delay, in informing this Honorable Court of the Completion of his Exhaustion, was due to his pursuant in his PACR, Petition, file with the Court Of Common Plea, York County, and Plaintiff's was out to Court, at the Y.C.P. during that period. See (Exhibit "B" Judge PCRA Order). Furthermore, plaintiff's didn't received a ruling from the Honorable Court informing him if stay was granted for him to pursue administrative remedies, at the York County Prison, the Court should note, plaintiff's seek injunctive reliefs, at the time of this filing of his Complaint, regarding the violation of his constitutional rights, relating this is arrest. [See Complaints filed June 8, 2001.]

Defendant's Baylark have failed to comply with the Federal Civil Rule of Discovery, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 33, as to Interrogatories has of this date. (See Exhibit C). A Court should not grant summary Judgment against a party who has not had an opportunity to pursue discovery materials, or whose discovery request have not been answered. Salahuddin v. Coughlin, 993 F.2d 306 309-01 (2nd Cir.1993); Klingeles v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409, 412-13, (9th Cir. 1988); WSB-TV v. Lee, 842, F.2d 1266, 1269 (11th Cir. 1988). Villante v. Department of Correction of City of New York 786 F.2d 516, 521-23 (2nd Cir.1986). Defendant had filed to comply with any requests made by this Plaintiff's, neither was he given the opportunities to interrogatories on Andrew Krepps, about his Affidavit, which the Honorable Judge relied on for her support. Has a matter of law, Plaintiff's is entitled to summary judgment. Mitchell v. Horn, 318 F.3d 523 (3d Cir. 2003); Porter v. Nussle, 534 U.S.516,532 (2002); Booth v. Churner, 532 U.S. 731, 739-41 (2001). Plaintiff's attempts to pursued administrative remedies was futile, and violation of due process, there were also conflict of interests surrounding Counsel of record, Donald L. Reinhart, Esq., and his handling with that attempts, he is also, Assitant County Solicitor, procaeeding over plaintiff's complaint's filed. By granting summary judgment to Defendant Baylack, Justice would not be served and would be prejudicial surrounding the circumstances presented in plaintiff's claimed relating his due process claims (Substantive and Procedural), and the denial of his right the contact his attorney upon is arrest, by Defendants Morgan and Baylark. See Francis v Marquez 741 F.2d 1127 (9th Cir. 1984); Wilbur v Harris, 53 F.3d 542 (2d Cir. 1995); In Cheyney

State College Faculty v Hufstedler 703 F.2d 732 (3d Cir. 1983); Tucker v. Randall 948 F.3d 388 (7th Cir.1991); Moore v. Marketplace Restaurant, Inc., 754 F.2d 1336, 1349 (7th Cir. 1985); U.S. v. Klat 156 F.3d 1258 (D.C. Cir. 1998); Sourbeer v. Robinson 791 F.2d 1094, 1105 (3d. Cir.1986).

IV. Whether The Honorable Judge erred in denied Plaintiff's Motion For Appointment Of Counsel.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1) provide the "[t]he court may request an attorney to represent any person unable to afford counsel." Such appointment is discretionary. Parham v. Johnson, 126 F.3d 454, 457-58 (3d Cir. 1997); Tabron v. Grace, 6 F.3d 147, 153 (3d Cir. 1993). Here Plaintiff's is unable to succeed in obtaining credible factual materials that could lead to admissible evidences, base on his pursued for discovery, because of his incarceration at SCI-Rockview, and plaintiff's indigent status, plaintiff can't pursue Discovery materials, especially, the Defendants prior Job history and conducts, and complaints filed against them by other persons, that deal with their credibility, plaintiff to pursue credible information, investigate and determine inter-department policy conducts of these Defendant; his ability to pursue credibility determinations of the Defendants and other witnesses, that witnesses the current of events; the issues are complex and beyond this Plaintiff's knowledge, as plaintiff demand a Jury trial, which plaintiff's lacked knowledge and experience to present his claims before a jury, plaintiff's has limited access to law books, to do researches. Due to the failure of the Defendants to comply with Discovery, plaintiff's demand for a Jury Trial, which lacked his experience and knowledge, and his lacked of extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff's request this Honorable Court to appoint counsel to represent him in this case. Parham, 126 F.3d at 457-58 (citing Tabron, 6 F.3d at 155-56, 157 n.5). See ABDULLAH v. GUNTER, 949 F.2d 1032, 1035 (8th Cir. 1991); TUCKER v. RANDALL, 948 F.2d 388 (7th Cir. 1991); MACLIN v. FREAKE, 650 F.2d 885 (1981). Plaintiff's claims have colorable merits, only a competent attorney could argue the complexities of these issues, before a panel of Jury adequately, example, Inter-department records, extensive investigation into procedure (interdiction, search and seizure, as it related to private mail boxes, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eight and Fourteenth Amendments violation). Plaintiff's would be prejudice and the interest of justice would not be served if plaintiff's represent himself in this matter, relating to plaintiff's mental conditions; an attorney could elicit relevant comprehensible testimony that will elucidable for factfinder to determine defendants credibility and the extent to the plaintive investigation, to obtain credible material facts, that will be admissible at trial.

Relief Requested

Wherefore, Plaintiff's pray, that for the foregoing reasons and upon consideration of the Honorable Judge Memorandum and Order, dated November 12, 2003, Correctional Baylark Motion For Summary Judgment, should be reverse and Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel, respectively, should be Granted. Plaintiff's also, Demand a Jury Trial.

Respectfully Submitted,

Tyrone P. James

Instructions:

1. Before writing this complaint please take any possible action to resolve this matter. Contact your Block Officer, ask for a Supervisor, or put in a request to your Counselor. On many occasions your problem can and will be quickly resolved. Use the 801 as the last resort.
2. You will usually receive an interview with the Complaint Supervisor within a few days. You may also receive a written response. In any case, you will receive a response within 10 days.
3. If more than one person writes the same complaint at the same time, a representative will be chosen.
4. Do not use this form:

 - (b) As a "petition" (more than one person signing).
 - (c) As a "grievance" against any other inmate(s).
 - (d) For matters concerned with challenge of or review of disciplinary action.

Use a Request Form for the above.

State your complaint:

On January 10th, 2001, 10:30am, I, Tyrone James #62154, was arrested on criminal charges by Agent James Morgan, State Attorney General Office and the York County Drug Task Force.

At approximately, or about 8 to 9pm, while being escorted by Agent Morgan, to the York County Prison admission (intake); I made a request for a phone call to speak to my attorney, and to contact my immediate family, so I could inform them of my immediate situation and to be prepared for bail arragnment[PA. Rule Crim. P. 540(f). Agent Morgan, deliberately and intentionally, instructed correctional officers Baylark and Asbury "not to give James, any phone call pending investigation"; I made repeated requests to C.O. Baylark and was deliberately, intentionally, and repeatedly denied, stating "he was instructed not to give me a phone call". Other intakes were allowed phone usage to contact their attorney, immediate family and a bailbond man. C.O. Baylark never conferred, or seek the approval of his supervisor, of whether to comply with Agent Morgan's instructions; knowing that Mr. James' Due Process rights were being violated, and that the state allow a arestee, a resonable opportunity to contact his attorney, immediate family, or bailbond, through the use of a phone call. PA. Rule Crim. P. Rule 540(f). C.O. Baylark bluntantly denied James access to an attorney at Agent Morgan's request.

James was taken to the "BAU Unit" that same night without any access to a phone, to contact counsel, or immediate family members.

I have received your grievance and my response is as follows:

You submitted a complaint about an incident that occurred over two years ago at this facility. You should have notified me of the situation when it happened (11/10/01) instead of waiting for such an extended amount of time to make a complaint. I cannot remedy something that transpired such a long time ago.

To note, you could have corresponded with your family and attorneys if you did not have telephone access at the time. You also did not have to disclose any information to the police upon their questioning of the charges against you. It was you who chose to relay information to the police.

In summation, your grievance is null and void as it was submitted in an untimely manner.

I wish to appeal the decision of the complaint supervisor. My reason for the appeal is as follows:

There are no time limits set forth in the York County Prison Grievance Procedures, Handbook; as to when inmates are allowed to file a 301 Complaint Form, in order to remedy specific situations. This incident occurred upon inmate James initial booking and processing, at the intake area, admission, York County Prison, on 1/10/01: When criminal charge was filed against him, by members of the York County Drug Task Force, and DEA, Agent Morgan. Inmate James was denied phone access, by CO Baylark, at Agent Morgan Request, to contact his Attorney and immediate family members. A Federal Constitutional Rights under the Six Amendment: A Procedural and Substantial Due Process Right. CO Baylark and Agent Morgan manifested a deliberate indifference to this inmate Constitutional right in violation of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution, and of Title 42, United State Code, Section 1983, PA Rule of Criminal Procedure, Rule 540 (G). It's the habitual practice, or a course of action that characteristically is repeated under like circumstances, a Custom and Policy, that York County Prison Official^s newly arrived inmates, at intake, to make a ten-or fifteen minute phone call at Admission, to contact Counsel, Bailbondmen, or immediate family members upon his or her arrest and Admission. Other inmates have the reasonable opportunity to make that call. Why was this inmate denied access to counsel, at such a critical stage of his criminal Prosecution. If this inmate was allowed to seek counsel advices, when he so requested counsel, on 1/10/01, the outcome of this situation would have been different. any statements taken by Agent Morgan, on 1/11/01, was involuntary, inmate James requested counsel and was denied access to counsel. This incident happened two years ago, but CO Baylark and CO Asbury, are still employees at the York County Prison; And there are no time frame in the handbook, as to when an inmates are allow to file a 301 Complaints; Therefore, this complaints should not be Null, or Voided, and should be allowed to proceed for the relief sought.

I have reviewed your grievance and my response is as follows:

You state that C/O Boulark refused you a phone call in November of 2001. You state that as fact when I have no idea as to whether that is true or not. That is the problem when you bring up a matter that is over 2 years old.

Your problems with your best case, DEA Agent Morgan and your confession are your own and have nothing to do with the prison.

Even if C/O Boulark did refuse to allow you to make a phone call as you allege, you are not entitled to monetary damages two years later. That is absurd.

At all times, inmates may ~~write~~ write letters. They may write letters even if they don't have money. For if they are locked up in BAW, they had access to your attorney through the mail.

You also had the absolute right not to talk to Agent Morgan. If, as you say, you talked to him while in the P, you voluntarily walked into the Attorney Client Room, you voluntarily sat down and you voluntarily talked to them after you were read your rights and advised that you could speak with an attorney.

Your appeal is denied on its merits and on the fact that it was submitted 2 years after the incident.

I wish to appeal the decision of the complaint supervisor. My reason for the appeal is as follows:

This is a response from Duty Warden, Roger Thomas, denial from this appeal filed by this inmate. I was denied a 301 form, instead of a 303 form, "Request for Solicitor Review." Please consider this as a 303 form. This is an appeal to the solicitor. The fact of the matter is, York County Prison, give newly arrived inmates at intake, a ten, or fifteen minute phone call to contact counsel, family, girlfriend, or immediate family members upon his, or her arrest. Federal Detainees held at the County, to inform their counsel, relative, or seek bail. There was even a sign posted at admission that stated, "you are allowed fifteen minute phone call after completing the booking process." In January of 2001, when I entered the Prison. A custom and policy adopted by the Prison officials. Other inmates were allowed to make a call that particular night; but on January 10, 2001, after preliminary arraignment, I was brought into the York County Prison, by Agent Morgan; at admission, I requested a phone call to call my attorney. There I was denied by this agent, an instructed, CD Baylark and COO Asbury, "Not to give this inmate, any phone call pending investigation." After the booking process, I repeatedly requested the use of the phone to contact counsel, and was denied by CD Baylark. This officer acted in concert with Agent Morgan, repress and manifested a deliberate indifference to the intentional and deliberate act of denying this inmate of his constitutional rights, of the 6th and 14th Amendments of the United States Constitution; A Equal Procedural and Substantive Due process right. Also see PA Rule of Criminal Procedure, Rule 540 (G). I was denied a reasonable opportunity to contact counsel, or immediate family members, by this agent and CD Baylark. I was placed in the "KAD", designed cellhouse inmates, for disciplinary action, without access to contact attorney or immediate family member for over 48 hours. This inmate invoked his right to counsel and to remain silent, immediately upon his arrest on January 10, 2001, but yet was subjected to continuous interrogation, at the Prison, by agent Morgan on January 11, 2001. There also I requested counsel and a phone call, and was still denied. Any statement made was illicit and was involuntary and untruthful; It was obtained illegally; because counsel was denied and this inmate invoked his right to remain silent. This inmate is a layman in the law, that is why this inmate seek, counsel advices in the first place, for representation, and to stop the coercive conduct of interrogation by Agent Morgan. The Duty Warden, stated, "that inmates are allowed to write letter to contact attorneys" a process that take two to three days; not when inmates need immediate advice and counsel upon being arrested and charge with a crime and being detained. See, PA R. Crim. P. Rule 540(G). Again there are no time limits set forth in the Prison Handbook as to when an inmate can file a written complaint, (301) form, to remedy a specific situation. Although two years have elapsed, this matter should be investigated and released or not.

Date: 15 APRIL 2003

I request review of the decision of the Deputy Warden. I received notice of his decision on 4/8/03 AND 4-18-03. The date of this request is 4-19-03. I certify that there are valid grounds for this review. The following statements, which form the basis of this Appeal, are true:

This is my second response from Duty Warden Roger Thomas denied from this Inmate appeal. As I was provided with the wrong form by THE Duty Warden, To Filed this appeal. The fact of the matter is, York County Prison give newly arrived Inmates, at Intake, a 15, or Fifteen minute phone call To contact, Counsel, Bondman, or Immediate Family members upon his or her arrest. Include Federal Detainee held at the County Prison To Inform their counsel, relative, or seek bail. There was even a signed post at admission that stated, "you are allowed a Fifteen minute phone call after completing the booking process". In January of 2001, when I entered the Prison. A custom and Policy dictated by the Prison Officials. Other Inmates were allowed To make call that particular night. But on January 10, 2001 after preliminary arraignment, I was brought into the York County Prison by Agent Morgan. At admission, I requested a phone call To call my Attorney. There I was denied by this agent, who instructed CO Baylark and CO Asbury "Not To give this inmate, any phone call pending investigation." After THE booking process, I repeatedly requested the use of the phone To contact counsel and was repeatedly denied by CO Baylark. This officer acted in concert with Agent Morgan request and manifested a deliberate indifference - the intentional and deliberated act of denying this inmate of his constitutional rights under the 6th, 5th, 8th and 14th Amendment of the United States Constitution. The Equal Protection of the Law, His Procedural and Substantive Due process Rights. Also, PA Rule of Criminal Procedure, Rule 540(c). I was denied a reasonable opportunity To contact counsel, or immediate family members, by this agent and CO Baylark. I was placed in the "BAU" designed To house inmates for disciplinary actions, with no access to contact my Attorney or immediate family members. For over 48 hours, After 72 hours. This inmate invoked his right To contact attorney and To remain silent immediately upon his arrest on January 10, 2001, but yet was subjected To continuous interrogation, at the Prison, by Agent Morgan on January 11, 2001. There also requested counsel and a phone call, I was still denied. Any statements made were elicited and involuntary, coerced. It was obtained illegally: because counsel was denied when He was refused To make a phone call To contact his Attorney. This inmate is a layman in the law, that why He sought counsel, To stop the coercive conduct of Agent Morgan interrogation. Inmate needed immediate counsel, not postal letter which take up To three days. Please note, There are no Time Limits stated in The Grievance procedure for an Inmate To File a 301 form, complaint, To remedy a specific situation.

Chairman (President))
Inspector Of The York County Prison
(York County Prison Board)
One Marketway West
4th Floor,
York, Pennsylvania 17401

Dear Chairman (President):

This is an appeal from the Assistant County Solicitor's, Donald L. Reinhart, review, dated May 6, 2003.

On March 20, 2003, this Inmate Tyrone P. James, presently is incarcerated in State Correctional Institution-Rockview, submitted a Inmate Complaint Form (301), alleging that on, January 10, 2001, this inmate was arrested by Agent of the States Attorney General Office and York County Drug Task Force.

This inmate, alleged, that approximately 2pm or 3pm, while being escorted by Agent Morgan (States Attorney General Office), after Preliminary Arraignment, to the York County Prison Admission (Intake), this Detainee, at the time, requested a phone call to contact his Attorney and Immediate family members. This inmate had previously requested the used of the phone at the York County Police Department, and was also denied by Agent Morgan. Agent Morgan deliberately and intentionally instructed Correctional Officer Baylark and Asbury, "Not to give James, any phone call pending Investigation." (as stated in this agent preliminary and Trial Testimony). I made repeated requests to C.O. Baylark to used the phone to contact my Attorney, I was immediately, deliberately, intentionally and repeatedly denied, by said officer, stating that, "I was instructed, not to allow you any phone call," without conferring, or seeking an approval from his superior, whether to comply or act on this agent instruction.

Other Inmates and Federal Detainees were allowed the used of the phone to contact their attorney, immediate family member and possible their Bail Bonds-man See PA.R.Crim.Proc. Rule 540 (2).

This correctional officer, acting upon Agent Morgan instruction, show a blatant disregard to this inmate Procedural and Substantive due process right and Equal protection of the United States Constitution, Amendment 6th, 8th, and 14th; and PA. Constitution Article 1 section 9; when he denied this inmate his right to contact his attorney or counsel or his immediate family members, at this very critical stages of his arrest, and amount to deliberate indifference, because other inmate, detainees, were treated differently, and were allowed to used the phone that night.

This inmate was later taken to the "BAY" Unit, that same night without any access to a phone to contact counsel or immediate family members. He was later subjected to continuous interrogation, by Agent Morgan, on January 11, 2001, at the York County Prison, in which Agent Morgan, illicited "Statement" from this inmates, that was later used at his trial. This inmate was not allowed to contact anyone from the outside for the first 72 hour of his arrest, and was denied counsel, by their actions.

This inmate, on June 8, 2001, filed a 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, in the United States, Federal District Court, against other parties that participated in his arrest and C.O. Baylark, in violation of is Federal Constitutional rights. This inmate admit, that he did not seek to exhaust administrative remedy, because this was not related to Prison condition, but only relate to one isolated incident; neither was this inmate informed by prison official of the York County Grievance System, and was never given or signed for a copy of the Prison Handbook. This matter is still pending in the U.S. District Court. This inmate learned about the grievance system when he was repeatedly denied adequate and limited access to the law library, where he exhausted the appeal system in that matter in late April 2001.

The Complaint Supervisor, responded to this complaint on March 26, 2003, and recommended this complaint be null and void as it was submitted in an untimely manner. This inmate filed a timely appeal to Duty Warden Roger Thomas, who responded on April 2, 2003, and denied the appeal on its merits and because it was submitted two (2) years after the incident had occurred. I was provided the wrong appeal form by this Duty Warden Thomas to file an appeal, (Form 304, instead of Form 306 to appeal). Please note that there is a conflict of interest here, because Duty Warden Thomas has submitted Sworn Affidavit on C.O. Baylark to the Federal Court. On April 16, 2003, I received the right appeal form, (Form 306) from Duty Warden, Dennis Bowen, and add nothing more to Duty Warden response; A timely appeal was filed by this inmate.

The Assistant County Solicitor, Donald L. Reinhart, has been informed of this 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, lawsuit pending, because he is C.O. Baylark counsel in that matter; which show a conflict of interest on Donald L. Reinhart part, by making any accurate decision in this complaint filed by this inmate.

QUESTION

WHETHER THIS INMATE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS WAS VIOLATED;
AND C.O. BAYLARK ACTED WITH DELIBERATE INDIFFERENCE TOWARD THIS INMATE.

It's the habitual practice, or a course of action that characteristically is repeated under like circumstances, a Custom and Policy, that York County Prison Official give a newly arrived, Inmate, Arrestee, or Detainee, at Admission (intake), the reasonable opportunity to make a ten or fifteen minute phone call, to contact an Attorney, immediate family members or a Bail Bondman, to seek counsel, informed family members of his or her arrest, or to acquire bail. There is also a sign posted at Admission, informing inmate of that call after completion of the booking process. Why was this arrestee so unfairly treated, by C.O. Baylark? Only because he was instructed to do so by Agent Morgan. The coercive act of negligent of C.O. Baylark, and the intentional and deliberate actions of both these public servant manifested a deliberate indifference to this inmate Constitutional rights and of Title 42, U.S.C. Section 1983, Amendment 6th, 8th, and 14th, U.S. Constitution; Pennsylvania Constitution Article 1 section 3; P.A.R.Crim.P. Rule 540 (9). The denial of Counsel, by C.O. Baylark, at such a critical stage of this inmate arrest, constitute a denial of this inmate Procedural, Substantial Due process right and Equal protection under Federal Laws. This inmate constitutional right was violated when he was repeatedly denied access to counsel by C.O. Baylark, action, upon Agent Morgan Request. This inmate was denied access to contact any outside source for the first seventy-two, (72) hour of his arrest, while he was placed in the SAU unit. Arrestees have a right to telephone an attorney. See Moore v. Marketplace Restaurant, Inc., 734 F.2d 1336, 1349 (7th Cir. 1983), where adversary judicial proceedings have started and booking process have been completed.

II

WHETHER THE YORK COUNTY PRISON ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM PROVIDES FOR CERTAIN TIME LIMITS.

In the Assistant County Solicitor, review dated May 7, 2003, he stated that a inmate have a time limits to file a complaint. Which is ten days of the act, act, or omission or conditions that form the basis of the complaint.

This inmate was incarcerated in the York County Prison from January 10, 2001, through March 11, 2002, has read and searched through the York County Prison handbook, York County Grievance Procedures 3-800F-3E-11; Inmate Complaint Review System (CRS) or "301"; Amendment to Procedures Manual For The York County Prison. Made available to this inmate through "Exhibit" on February 25th 2002, and nowhere in this Provision and Regulation is this time limited printed, to informed an inmate of his time limitation to file a grievance Complaint, Form "301"; Therefore this time limitation was not made available to this inmate at that particular time frame and shouldn't apply where this inmate seek relief; this provision is inapplicable. Although there is a statute of limitations for civil rights claims, which is two years under Federal Law, this inmate had applied that status to his Section 1983. Administratively, there was no time limitations made available to this inmate in the York County Prisoner Handbook or the York County Grievance Procedures Manual. Furthermore C.O. Identity was not made available to this inmate until late April 2001, when this inmate came aware of is true identity (Names).

This inmate agree that he didn't filed a 801 Complaint form, before seeking relief in Federal Court; the fact of the matter, is this inmate constitutional rights was severely violated by C.O. Baylark, and other parties who participated in my arrest, of is 8th, 6th and 14th Amendment rights, lead this inmate to seek injunctive relief in Federal Court.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons this inmate seek the reliefs sought on this complaint. This complaint is timely, as the time state ^{IT N} ~~running~~ ^{Baylark} when C.O. ~~Baylark~~, true identity was revealed to him. Also this is not a prison condition, involving the general population.

~~Sincerely,~~

Sincerely,

Tyrone P. James

RE: Solicitor's Review – Inmate Tyrone James Complaint Register No. 032603J-0331

Dear Inmate James:

The following constitutes a response to the appeal that you filed from the determination made by Deputy Warden Dennis Bowen on April 15, 2003.

I.

PROCEDURAL AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

An appeal has been filed under the Complaint Review System established at the York County Prison by inmate Tyrone James. The date of the appeal is April 19, 2003.

In the appeal Tyrone James claims that on January 10, 2001, at 10:30 a.m. he was arrested by the York County Drug Task Force.

At about 8:00 or 9:00 p.m. he requested the right to speak to counsel and was denied this right. Subsequently, he alleges he made repeated requests to Correction Officer Baylark to make a phone call and in violation of the County policies, which provides for a phone call after booking, he was repeatedly denied this opportunity.

Tyrone P. James, EX-9451
May 6, 2003
Page Two

We are familiar with Tyrone P. James, who filed a Civil Rights Complaint on June 8, 2001 naming Correction Officer Baylark as a Defendant together with other parties who participated in his arrest.

On March 11, 2003, the United States Magistrate Judge Mannion recommended that the claim against Correction Officer Baylark, the York County Prison and the York County Police Department be dismissed.

The reason for the dismissal was that Tyrone James failed to exhaust the administrative remedies that were available to him.

James, apparently in an effort to correct a deficiency which would cause his federal lawsuit to be placed in jeopardy, now has attempted to file an 801 inmate complaint form more than two years after the event that formed the basis of his alleged constitutional violation.

II.

DISCUSSION AND DETERMINATION

The York County Prison administrative system provides for certain time limits:

"A complaint should be filed within ten days of the act, acts or omissions or conditions that form the basis of the complaint. In no event will any grievance be considered after six months unless for cause shown establishing that the inmate was physically or mentally unable to file a grievance. No grievance will be considered more than one year after the act, acts or omissions or conditions that form the basis of the complaint."

James answers this by saying that this provision was not contained in the prison handbook while he was incarcerated. While we agree that the handbook did not contain this language in January of 2001, the time limits were part of regulations and in any event any claim would be subject to the general tort statute of limitation which applies in this case.

The statute of limitations for a civil rights claim is two years. James' complaint is out of time administratively and out of time based upon the federal law. Once James elected to file his claim in the federal court he was bound by that determination.

This appeal is denied as not being timely and because James elected to seek relief in the federal court.

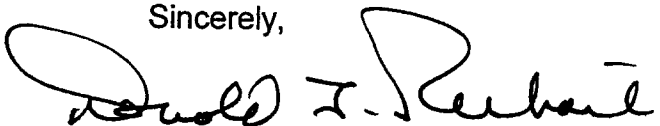

Tyrone P. James, EX-9451
May 6, 2003

All inmates have the right of appeal to the York County Prison Board. Though we believe that James' complaint is legally deficient but will afford him the opportunity to tae the final appeal.

Notice of appellate rights:

You may appeal this decision by writing a letter, explaining reasons why your request or claim should be granted. The letter should be addressed to: Chairman (President), Inspectors of the York County Prison (York County Prison Board), One Marketway West, 4th Floor, York, Pennsylvania 17401

I wish to appeal the decision of the Classification Committee. My reason for the appeal is as follows:

I was placed in Delta Block upon my reentering the York Court Prison from SCI-Rockview, for a Court hearing. My convictions are non-violent. I was never classified as a violent offender, either, my stay here at VCP in January 2001 to March 2002, or while my present stay at SCI-Rockview, where I am at a minimum custody level. Again my offenses are non-violent, for which I am on Appeal. I have no assaults, escape or violent on my record, that would put me at a high risk inmate. I am requesting regular population or General population, so I can get the proper credit. Thank you.
